Brochures Renewal Regulations

Brochures are subject to renewal after varying periods of time. The following outline when and under what circumstances a brochure is subject to renewal.

- Brochures must be approved every five years.
- Brochures must be approved whenever any printing changes are made.
- Fair and Festival approvals are good for five consecutive years.
- Material that require monthly or quarterly updates receive only one year approval.

Display Priority

The Georgia Tourism Division assigns display and distribution priorities based on what the brochures is promoting. There are three priority categories which are outlined as follows:

- Brochures describing primary travel attractions, sight-seeing tours and events (i.e., Cherry Blossom Festival) are categorized as Category I and receive first priority with regards to displaying and distributing the brochure.
- Primary commercial tourism establishments such as restaurants and lodging properties are classified as Category II and are designated to secondary display space.
- Category III brochures may be placed at the centers if it is determined that it will be of benefit to the Center’s staff in answering inquires from visitors concerning tourism and that it aids in promoting travel spending.

If a brochure is denied for distribution in the Welcome Center, a letter will be sent to the applicant explaining why it was not approved.

The following briefly describe reasons that may lead to a publication being denied distribution through Georgia’s Welcome Centers:

- Brochure is political or religious in nature or content, exception if brochure is only a directory of locations in immediate area.
- Brochure is to devoted to the advertisement of real estate.
- Publication represents a property that has changed names since the brochure was originally printed and approved.
- Coupons or discounts with out expiration dates.
- Publication does not promote Georgia’s tourism attractions, natural resources, history, industry or the commerce of the state.
- The brochure represents a publication which does not meet the Department Standards.

To have your brochure approved for distribution in Georgia’s Welcome Centers, you must make a written request to the Georgia Tourism Division, Attention Debbie Hulsey. In addition to a written request, you must also include five, final copies of your brochure. Any brochure changes that occur after the brochure has been approved must be resubmitted. Failure to do so will result in the brochure not being displayed and distributed. Send your written request to:
