

It's Official – Four to Finish!

 Rose Tahash

November 18, 2014

As in nature – so in the BLA...

Undergraduate students will have a greater ability to tailor the content of the degree, associate dean for academics Gregg Coyle said. “We have one of the top five undergraduate programs of landscape architecture in the nation,” he said. “It is only fitting that we assist our students in completing their degree in the most efficient manner possible with the full knowledge that we are giving them all the skills they need to be successful.”

Check out the full press release about the BLA at UGA program length at: <http://news.uga.edu/releases/article/landscape-architecture-4-years/>